

User Agreement

Introduction

Welcome to Dialectb2b.com! We prioritize your privacy and are committed to ensuring a clear understanding of how we handle your information and that of your organization when you utilize our services. This User Agreement delineates crucial terms regarding data usage and privacy protection for both Organization and its individual users. By engaging with our services, including but not limited to signing up, joining Dialectb2b.com, or accessing our website (www.dialectb2b.com), you will enter into a binding legal agreement with us. This agreement, herein referred to as the "Declaration" or "User Agreement," comprehensively addresses important facets such as the acquisition, utilization, and safeguarding of your information. It is imperative to thoroughly review and consent to these terms. In the event of disagreement with our Agreement, kindly refrain from engaging in actions such as "Signup as Organization" or "Individual," or similar, and abstain from utilizing our services. To terminate this Agreement, simply close your account and cease utilizing our services. We expressly reserve the right to periodically update this Agreement, our Privacy Policy, and all other pertinent policies. Noticeable modifications will be communicated through our services or other appropriate channels. We further reserve the right to update the Terms and Conditions at any time without providing notice. Continued utilization of our services post-notification of changes denotes acceptance of the updated terms effective from the date of notification.
